

World Cup Wednesday Sketch: 'Forever Superior Sports Socks'
By Matt Fishwick <http://ilovemattfishwick.com>

ATMOS: FOOTBALL MATCH

F/X: REF WHISTLE BLOWS

F/X: CROWD BOO

FAN: (chanting) The referee's a wanker. The referee's a wanker.

NARRATOR: Yes, it's true. The referee is a wanker, but other than his lousy decisions and the muscles on one arm being slightly bigger on one arm than another, you'd never know it. That's because he uses Forever Superior Sports Socks. It's longer and wider, to give you a sense that you could grow into it. Its super absorbent lock away lining means you can go a full ninety minutes without any fear of leakage. Each sold separately. Now available in both machine wash, and dry clean. The Forever Superior Sports Sock. It's for sweat.
(beat) Honest!
